2) Cuphead - Head Construction

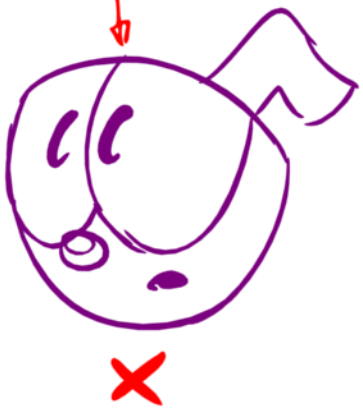
C

avoid eyeballs feeling round or volumetric on CH



Cuphead's eyeballs are like flat stickers wrapped around his head eyeball takes like this can show volume, this is an exception to the rule

we want to avoid seeing the far side of his face, unless it's in-between a front and 3/4 pose in 3/4, have Cuphead's eye meet the side of CH's head

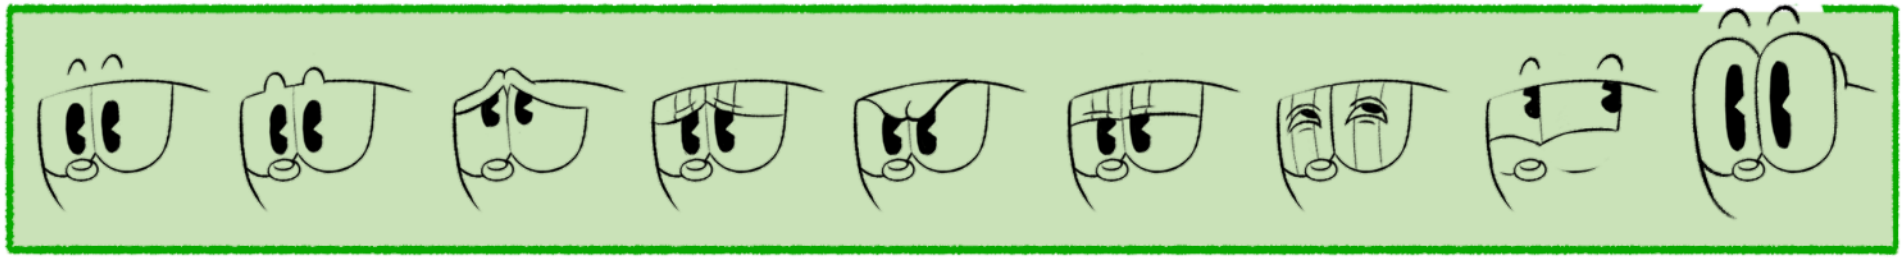
3) Cuphead - Eyelid Theory

Do



-Eyebrows should follow where the pupil is, as if there's an imaginary line connecting them
-Keep shapes inside cup shape as much as possible, don't "break" the cup
-When fully encasing the lid, add "oil" shine and have shape follow the curve of the cup
-Eyelids don't always have to have to be "oily", they can be broken lines and stay same color as cup
-When expressing extreme surprise, eyes can break through cup shape - just don't add "cup skin" around the eyes
-Try and keep eye shapes simple and expressive; avoid extra or unnecessary "wrinkle" lines or details if possible
